

POST-MAJORITY CASE MANAGER

Location: Paqtnkek Mi'kmaw Nation

Employment Type: Full-Time

Application Deadline: Open until filled

ABOUT PAQTNKEK MI'KMAW NATION

Paqtnkek Mi'kmaw Nation is a proud and growing community committed to self-governance, cultural preservation, and the well-being of our members. We are seeking a dedicated Post-Majority Case Manager to support young adults transitioning out of care and into independent living.

POSITION SUMMARY

The Post-Majority Case Manager will provide culturally appropriate support, advocacy, and case management services for youth aged 18-26 who have transitioned out of child welfare services. This role focuses on helping young adults access housing, education, employment, life skills training, and community resources while promoting personal well-being and self-sufficiency.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Build trusting relationships with post-majority youth, providing guidance and advocacy.
- Develop individualized transition and support plans tailored to each client's goals and needs.

- Connect young adults with housing, education, employment, mental health, and cultural support services.
- Facilitate life skills workshops (e.g., budgeting, cooking, time management, self-care).
- Collaborate with social services, health professionals, and community partners.
- Monitor and document client progress while ensuring confidentiality.
- Promote Mi'kmaq cultural identity, traditions, and community engagement in service delivery.
- Assist with crisis intervention and problem-solving as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS & SKILLS:

- Education & Experience: Diploma or degree in Social Work, Human Services, Indigenous Studies, or a related field. Relevant experience in youth services, social work, or case management is an asset.
- Cultural Competency: Knowledge of Mi'kmaq traditions, community dynamics, and challenges faced by Indigenous youth transitioning out of care.
- Communication & Advocacy: Strong interpersonal skills to support, mentor, and empower youth.
- Problem-Solving & Crisis Management: Ability to assess needs, develop solutions, and respond effectively in crisis situations.
- Collaboration: Experience working with social services, health professionals, and community organizations.
- Confidentiality & Ethics: Commitment to maintaining privacy and ethical service delivery.

- Valid Driver's License: Access to reliable transportation is preferred.

WHY JOIN US?

- Work in a community-driven environment focused on healing and empowerment.
- Help make a lasting impact on the lives of young adults.
- Competitive salary and benefits package.
- Opportunities for professional development and cultural training.

HOW TO APPLY:

Submit your resume and cover letter to David Kearns HR Director at jobs@paqtnekek.ca with the subject line "Post-Majority Case Manager Application."

Join us in building a stronger future for our youth!

